

Peterborough Diocesan Guild of Church Bellringers

Master Role Description

Role Description

- To strive to achieve good standards of ringing for service and practice across the Guild and to support towers and members on achieving that aim.

Responsibilities

- To form one of the Guild Executive Committee, and act as a trustee of the Charity
- To chair the Recruitment and Training Committee
- To chair Guild meetings in the absence of the President
- With the Recruitment & Training Committee, to identify training needs across the Guild or in specific areas of the Guild and support the execution of those as necessary
- To make ringing arrangements at Guild events, including organising towers for 10 bell practices, organising the judges and order of ringing at Guild striking contests
- To arrange, or delegate, entering teams into inter-county striking competitions, for example the Ridgman Trophy.
- To run service and evening ringing at the Guild's main events. To arrange or delegate the organisation of any other Guild ringing
- To recommend grants for recruitment and training expenses from the Training Fund

Notes

- The Master does not have to be the most experienced ringer; the Master may delegate any tasks to those that are technically more competent, if they see fit.
- The Master does not necessarily arrange towers for the Guild's main events, this is the responsibility of the hosting branch. Input may be sought and advice offered.

Reports to

- Guild Management Committee on behalf of the Recruitment and Training Committee
- Guild Management Committee on behalf of the Training Fund
- Annual General Meeting

Main interactions

- Executive Committee
- Recruitment & Training Committee
- Branch Ringing Masters

Expectations

- Will be a suitable person to act as a trustee to the charity
- Will submit to an Enhanced DBS check and provide the results to the Guild for recording
- Will undertake safeguarding training to a leadership level through the CofE